Artist Conduct and Grievances: _____ (int)

It is our belief that prompt resolution to any issue or grievance will create the best learning environment for both the artist and the staff. We urge you to bring any issues you have to the educator involved, in a polite and professional manner.

The exceptional staff and educators are here to give you their hard earned, real- life lessons and experiences in the field “keys to success” not just to teach you technical skills.

All artist’s are expected to act with respect and courtesy at all time to both classmates and staff, as we the staff at Faces Etc, of MN, will do for you.

This is a large industry, and a small family, both at the same time; you never know when you will need a mentor in the field! Treat each other with respect as a fellow colleague.

Profanity is NOT considered professional verbiage and is not permitted, nor acceptable, and is never appropriate!

Unprofessional behaviors, such as, but not limited to, manufacturing, possessing, using, or selling illegal drugs, or appearing under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, on or near the training center premise, or any off site location, is considered to be a violation of your contract, and is subject to dismissal or expulsion from the program.

Violation of the law will be referred to the appropriate law enforcement authority.

Smoking is permitted in the designated back area of the parking lot ONLY.

An artist may lodge a complaint to the director for resolution, if the complaint is not resolved in three (3) days, the artist should submit a complaint in writing to the director.

Within ten (10) days Faces Etc. of MN, Will provide the artist with a written disposition, if the complaint is rejected the reason will be stated.

Faces Etc of MN, reserves the right to determine artist conduct and grievances

Artists are required to study for tests and practice disciplines outside of the training center.

Sanitation is a required part of the program, and all enrollees shall help to maintain a clean and sanitary environment to work in daily, including mirrors, garbage, restroom, floors, counters and sinks.

I have read and understand the above policy’s. _____

130 Hour Course Dress Code: _____ (int)

Dress for Success!! Maintaining a professional appearance is vital to your success.

Faces Etc of Mn, Is interested in preserving professionalism in all areas of training, we are representing not only the training center, and the professional makeup artist industry, but the world of fashion and beauty, let's look the part!

We have established guidelines to ensure fairness, understanding and positive habits for all enrollments.

Professional Dress includes:

1. Artist uniform is: Faces Etc. T-shirt, which is included in the kit, it may be worn alone or with a long sleeved solid black or solid white t-shirt underneath. These shirts must be worn daily they are your UNIFORM –no exceptions!

2. Any “professional dress” bottom (no Denim) may be worn consisting of: Pants, Capri's, or a skirt-(no shorter than three inches above the knee) they maybe colored, such as khaki's, red, pink, grey, white or black) NO mini skirts, sweatshirts or hoodies are allowed.

Absolutely No shorts allowed,

No legging that is worn separately is permitted. However leggings worn under an appropriate length skirt would be acceptable, leggings are not considered appropriate as pants!)

Nothing may cover your dress code shirt. It needs to be your top piece of clothing!

3. Comfortable dress shoes or sandals are appropriate (no athletic type shoes or sandals please.) shoes must be clean and in good repair.

4. Friday's are Dress Jeans days unless otherwise stated. Jeans must be clean, and not torn or ripped. Jean skirts are permitted as long as they are no shorter than 3' above knees, again NO-MINI skirts allowed! Jeans are to be worn with Faces Etc. t-shirts.

Undergarments are required and should not be visible at any time.

An artist who chooses to come not in dress code will not be allowed to enter the class until they are in compliance, which may not allow them opportunity for that day's education. (Faces Etc. educator's discretion will prevail.)

*Additional shirts may be purchased for $20.00 cash, as available.

Artists are not permitted to use or carry cell phones or other electronic devises while in class.

Guns are banned on the premises.

I have read and understand the above policy's. _____
(Signature) (Date)

Attendance Requirements: _____ (int)

In order to pass the artist must have a 90% attendance record. All quizzes, homework, and assignments must be turned in. Artists may only miss one day of the 130 Hour course. If an artist fails to complete requirements the maximum time allowed to complete is 1.5 the normal clock hours for the class offered.

Example: 130 Hour Multi Media is 3/12 weeks long, so the number of weeks they have to complete the course is six weeks total, in order to get their certification. That additional two weeks is the maximum time allowed or they receive a failure for the course and forfeit their Certification from the class.

If an artist misses a class, they can make arrangement to attend the next class date that day is scheduled to repeat, if there is an opening-or the education for that segment will be forfeited!

130 Hour LOA Requirements: _____ (int)

An artist who must take a leave of absence (LOA) may do so provided he or she has 1st received approval by the I Director, or Administration. LOA applications are available from the training center admissions office. Artist's granted an LOA must return to the program within six months in order to complete the program they were enrolled into. They must re-enter where they left-prior to their LOA.

Failure to return within the six months will result in a pro rated refund based on the number of hours they were enrolled in the program, minus the application, kit and other fees that may apply. They are then considered a drop, if they wish to start again, they will be treated as a new enrollment, and all fees will apply.

130 Hour Tardiness: _____ (int)

Tardiness is a disruption to the class and learning process and should be avoided. Two (2) Tardies or Absences in a program will result in probation for a one week period- if the artist is tardy or absent during the probation the artist will be subject to suspension from the course. And will not be allowed to re-enter the next class course.

A tardy or late is considered as arriving late for class start, returning late from lunch, or leaving early from class.

*There is no credit offered for prior learning-all artists must complete the required number of hours in the program, in order to receive their Certificate of Completion.

I have read and understand the above policy's. _____
